Competition procedure

1—Preliminary Round
On 13 March at 10.00 a.m. all of the contestants must take the classical dance class and a contemporary repertoire workshop. The official professors will eliminate those contestants who do not have the required technical level to continue competing.

2—Qualifying Rounds
On 14 March in the morning, a classical dance class and a contemporary repertoire workshop will be held behind closed doors, neither teachers nor family members of the contestants will be allowed to be present. At the end of each class, the jury members will eliminate those contestants who did not obtain a sufficient score to go on to the next elimination phase.

In the next qualifying round, the contestants must present their classical and free variations in the theatre wearing their performance clothes. At the end of this round, the jury will select the semifinalists.

On the same day in the afternoon, all the semifinalists will perform their classical variation on the stage in the required competition clothing. This session is open to the public and will be held at the Fortuny theatre stage in Reus. At the end of this round, the jury will meet to deliberate and select the finalists. The result will be announced the same day.

3—Final
The final will be held on the same stage on 15 March in the evening and will be open to the general public. Finalists will take a class on the stage and perform their classical and contemporary variations in performance clothes. After an onstage dance performance, the jury will deliver the verdict. Afterwards, the awards will be announced. All the finalist participants or those with a special grant must attend the award ceremony.

Dance gala

The winners of the three first prizes will participate in the dance gala held on Saturday 16 March 2024 at 8:30 p.m, at Teatre Fortuny. The jury will decide the variations to be performed and the organisers will arrange the programme.

Travel and maintenance expenses

Contestants will be responsible for their travel and accommodation expenses. Semifinalists (max.10) will receive 150 Euros to help them cover accommodation and travelling expenses.

Photographs films and visual and audiovisual recordings

Authorization from the organisers must be obtained for any recordings taken during the competition made with photographic equipment using film, video, audiovisual devices or any other system. Any recording will remain the exclusive property of the Fundació Teatre Fortuny in terms of its circulation, reproduction, distribution, projection, broadcasting and transmission. These recordings may be used for promotion or commercial purposes and could benefit a third party, with no restriction on the type of product that may be advertised. Participants permanently and irrevocably transfer this right to the Fundació with no restrictions on time or place. Only the Organizing Committee can arrange contracts with television stations or individuals. Contestants will not have the right to charge any fee for recordings made during the competition.

Right to make a claim

Only the Fundació Teatre Fortuny will have the right to make decisions about any changes stipulated in the competition rules.

The jury's decision in the selection of contestants, eliminated contestants, the semi-final, the final and the awarding of prizes will be final and appeals will not be admitted. If there is any doubt over the interpretation of any of the Rules, only the Catalan version will be considered valid.
